Calling all boating enthusiasts and lovers of beautiful waterfront properties. Your search for the perfect home is over! Coastal Escape is an exclusive canal front community situated just off the breathtaking North Sound of the Cayman Islands. Complete with boat space dockage and serene views, you don't have to look any further. Upon entering Coastal Escape #6, you immediately notice off the back of the home a beautiful, open living space with gorgeous views of the canal. The ground floor boasts a lovely kitchen with exquisite granite counter tops, that coordinate well with the stylish earth tone cabinetry. Stainless steel appliances complement the kitchen ensemble and would be inviting to any well-seasoned or aspiring chef. Making your way to the second level of the home, the first of the two spacious guest suites offers a lovely little balcony on the backside of the house, which mirrors those same amazing views from the downstairs living area. There is a full bathroom with soaking tub and shower, which has an elegant tiling arranged straight up to ceiling. The hallway leading down to the second guest suite houses a nice linen closet. Space usage is superb, in that a stackable, full-size washer and dryer were accommodated. The second of the two guest suites is positioned at the front of the house. It, too, has an en suite bathroom, complete with soak tub and shower. Both guest suites offer spacious closets, complete with a handy storage and organizing system. Finally, as you head on up to the third level of the home, this space was reserved for the master bedroom alone. There is a beautiful four-post bed with matching chest of drawers and nightstands, large en suite bathroom and walk-in closet with plenty of space for his and her wardrobe, double sinks in the middle of a very attractive granite counter and, to top it all off, an amazing walk-in, glass-enclosed double shower! Oh, and one last little surprise before we leave. Did we mention that the back window of the Master has views of the serene North Sound?!?! To top off the beauty of this home, the strata encompasses a well-maintained property, to include an inviting and refreshing pool overlooking the canal, a gym to stay in excellent physical shape, and even a small boardroom to be used for meetings or other business. Honestly, what more could you ask for? So, tell us, how do you want to live your life?
