181 Powery Road, located directly off Conch Point Road in the heart of a rapidly developing area of West Bay is a six-bedroom, four bathrooms, large property of just over 6000sqft with two kitchens, two utility rooms, and a massive double garage on .5 acre parcel. The main building is a solid concrete build both exterior and interior walls on top of a solid slab foundation providing stability and strength. The room layout has been designed to accommodate a huge family home which can easily be converted into two unit duplex providing an excellent revenue generator with a solid ROI. With half an acre of land, there is plenty of space surrounding the main house to accommodate outdoor additions such as a private pool, gardening, or an expansive lawn area. The gardens are already home to mature fruit trees such as breadfruit, papaya, and the island favorite a large fruit-bearing mango tree, all providing shaded areas throughout the property.
